STATUS	NAME	DIFFICULTY	DISTANCE	DURATION
 closed	PANORAMATOUR VERWALL	medium	7,0 km	2,0 h
The starting point of the 'Friedrichshafener Hütte car park' situated in the district of Valzur between Ischgl and Galtür can be accessed by car or bus (Piel bus stop – then a short walk out of the valley). The winter footpath towards the Friedrichshafener Hütte in Paznaun in Tyrol impresses with sensational views of the surrounding mountains of the Silvrettagelände. The route follows lots of twists and turns and a moderate incline up to the edge of the forest. Destination: Return journey along the same path.
 closed	EBENE	easy	8,5 km	2,0 h
This leisurely winter hiking trail leads from the Silvretta cable car along the valley trail towards Kappl. After the Silvretta parking lot, cross a small bridge and follow the signs for "Winterwanderweg Ebene". Shortly after, cross the rushing Madlein stream and the districts of Versahl, Vergröß, Platt and finally Ebene follow. In the hamlet of Ebene, there is a bus stop allowing you an easy return trip back to Ischgl. Those who still have some energy can hike back along the same route.
 closed	ISCHGL	easy	5,0 km	1,5 h
The Ischgl winter hiking trail is perfect as an initial explorative tour or something for more leisurely days when on winter holidays. With 5 km of level routing, it is not overly demanding yet leaves you with the feeling of actually having done something. The hiking trail starts right by the Silvretta parking lot and is marked with a sign (entry point to cross-country skiing trail). In the beginning, a short walk leads directly along the cross-country skiing trail before the route branches off onto a separate trail in the hamlet of Paznaun. The trail continues across level terrain for 2.5 km in direction of Mathon. Having arrived at the recycling yard, the following options are available: either take the same trail back or continue hiking towards Galtür, where you can get on the Mathon winter hiking trail.
 closed	MATHON	easy	6,0 km	1,5 h
This 6 km long winter hiking trail can be combined with the winter hiking trail from Ischgl. The route immediately starts off with a short climb, but then levels out again and continues on the gallery and then close to the forest to Mathon. When exiting the village, cross the Valzur stream and walk to the wildlife park located below. Here you can take a bus for the return trip. Alternatively take the same trail back.
 closed	MUTTA	easy	6,0 km	1,5 h
The winter hiking trail up to the Mutta leads from Ischgl village centre through forests covered in deep snow uphill in switchbacks. From up here you have wonderful views across all of Ischgl and can observe the lively goings-on at a distance. The wide path winds uphill for 2.5 km, rewarding those getting to the top with great views. From the Silvretta cable car, walk past the parking lot and after crossing the bridge follow the signs for Mutta. On the way back, the route can be extended a bit and some sunshine caught by not walking back in direction of the parking lot again after Jungmann Inn, but taking the turn-off before and hiking to the hamlet of Paznaun. From the hamlet of Paznaun, it's back to the village again.
 closed	SCHMUGGLERTOUR - ISCHGL - SAMNAUN	Not specified	n/a	n/a You can decide by yourself whether you want to do the entire route by cable car and chairlift, or put in some sections of hiking. An experience of the special kind. From Ischgl village centre, either take the Fimba (A3) - or Silvretta cable car (A1) up to the Idalp. Then take the Flimjoch chairlift (B2) to the Viderjoch hiking area, which forms the border between Austria and Switzerland. Next take the Flimsattel chairlift (N1) to get to the Alp Trider on Swiss soil. After a few metres on foot you'll reach the lower terminus of the chairlift "Alp Trider Sattelbahn" (N6). From up there, the double-deck aerial tramway (L1 or L2) goes back to Samnaun, where numerous shops are waiting to be explored. Please note: Begin return trip in Samnaun no later than 14:30, to make sure you can get back to Ischgl by lift all the way.
